

Jackson Names Scott Romine President of Jackson National Life Distributors LLC

Jackson also announces Alison Reed will have an expanded role as COO of JNLD

LANSING, Mich. — December 13, 2021 — Jackson Financial Inc.¹ (NYSE: JXN) (Jackson®) today announced that Scott Romine has been appointed President of Jackson National Life Distributors LLC (JNLD), the marketing and distribution business of Jackson National Life Insurance Company. Scott will also be a member of Jackson's Executive Committee, reporting to Chief Executive Officer, Laura Prieskorn.

A 24-year Jackson veteran, Romine most recently served as President of Advisory Solutions, where he was instrumental in leading the business unit's strategic initiatives and distribution expansion. Romine was also previously President and CEO of National Planning Holdings, Inc. (NPH), Jackson's affiliated network of independent broker-dealers. Romine succeeds Aimee DeCamillo, Chief Commercial Officer and President of JNLD, who has departed the company.

Jackson also announced Alison Reed's expanded role as the Chief Operating Officer of JNLD. In this role, Reed will be responsible for Distribution Services, Distribution Marketing and Product Solutions, reporting to Romine. Reed has been with Jackson almost twenty years and has worked in various leadership roles, including annuity product management and NPH.

"Scott and Alison are talented leaders who bring proven track records of driving growth and innovation," said Prieskorn. "Their knowledge of Jackson's products, distribution partners and our distribution organization is extensive and fully aligned with Jackson's strategic focus of diversifying through product and distribution partner expansion."

Prieskorn continued, "On behalf of the entire organization, I thank Aimee for her contributions to Jackson and wish her all the best in the future."
